

CALL FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

AANMS Representative on ARTnet Executive Committee

Summary

The AANMS seeks to appoint a representative to the Executive Committee of ARTnet (Australasian Radiopharmaceutical Trials Network), a joint venture between the AANMS and the Australian and New Zealand Society of Nuclear Medicine (ANZSNM). ARTnet is a stand-alone entity established to oversee the trials-based activity of the network. The Executive Committee is responsible for the overall governance, strategic planning and financial management of ARTnet.

Description

The key duties of the AANMS Representative on the ARTnet Executive Committee will include, but not be limited to:

- monitor the conduct of ARTnet such that it is consistent with the stated objectives of ARTnet
- appoint persons to the positions on the Scientific Committee
- agree on the terms of reference and reporting arrangements of the Scientific Committee, Trial Management Committees and any other committees as required;
- receive reports from the Scientific Committee on matters relating to research priorities, the development and implementation of individual clinical research projects, and publication issues;
- review the progress of ARTnet and formulate the work plan for the following time period;
- provide advice and direction on the long-term strategic directions of ARTnet including financial sustainability; and
- liaise with national and international clinical trial groups.

Committee members will be appointed for a two-year term and may be eligible for reappointment for a further two terms.

Expressions of Interest

Fellows/Members of the AANMS with an interest and experience in research (including clinical trials) and organisational governance/finance are invited to submit an Expression of Interest for the role of AANMS Representative on the ARTnet Executive Committee.

The JV agreement and current strategic and business plans and any further core documents will be issued to the successful incumbent.
